

STEVE SELLERS

Senior Global Analyst

Steve Sellers joined the Global Asset Allocation Team as a research analyst in July of 2013, where he assists with product development and global research publications. Prior to his move to the global team, Steve worked as an analyst in NDR's Custom Research Solutions, where he created complex financial models and a variety of other custom tools and research to help clients meet their investment objectives.

Steve graduated from University of Florida in 1999 with a Bachelor of Science in Finance and Management. After graduation, he began his career in retail banking before joining UBS Financial Services as a Financial Advisor in 2002. Steve joined Ned Davis Research in May of 2007, shortly after he earned his Master of Business Administration from University of Florida.
